Policies and Procedures used for reporting and identifying incidents:

Muthill Kiddy Club Duty of Candour Policy, in conjunction with information detailed in the references.

When something has happened that triggers the duty of candour, our staff will report this to the manager who has responsibility for ensuring the duty of candour procedure is followed. The manager records the incident and reports as necessary to the Care Inspectorate. The manager and staff will review the incident and what can be learned and will identify changes for the future.
